

Module 2 Assumptions and judgements

'How would you feel?'

““

People think that you are helpless, and even when I've been out with Lewis people have tried to help me across the road without me asking them to which is really scary.

““

When I'm out with my mum at a café or a restaurant people talk to her and ask her what I want to order, like I'm not there.

Hannah

““

People think my dog has a satnav chip in her. They don't appreciate that I am the one telling her where to go and she's making sure I get there safely.

Rosie

““

One time I asked a person for directions and they leaned over and told them to my dog! I told them although River is very clever, she can't actually talk to me to tell me what you just told her!

Kelly

““

People think I'm stupid, I can tell that's what they think.

Debbie

““

Libby isn't a robot, she's a dog. It annoys me when people say 'I didn't think guide dogs are supposed to bark'.

Lora

““

I was once approached by a person in a café who grabbed me to help me and I spilled my drink. They then told me that I needed help because I spilt my drink, when actually it was their fault and I was doing fine before they came along.
