

Fall into fundraising.

Autumn is the time when you start to wrap up with big coats, scarves and hats but that doesn't mean you have to wrap up your fundraising. This season is the perfect setting for a sense of comfort, warmth and reflection.

Fundraising a part of #TeamGuideDogs will help people with sight loss to live life as they choose, just like Priya.

“

When I was partnered with my first dog, Wilf, it was love at first sight!

”

“

He gave me the confidence to go out more and do everyday things, like picking up Lucy from school. I never wanted her to feel responsible for looking after me, and since I've had guide dogs, she can concentrate on living her own life as a young woman.

”

“

Having a guide dog is a life-changing experience and I'm phenomenally grateful to Guide Dogs for enabling me to be more independent.

”

A vibrant Halloween party scene. In the foreground, a man with a beard and a red tie smiles at a group of people. The table is decorated with large pumpkins, one of which has a black spider on top, and several glasses of colorful drinks. In the background, a woman with long curly hair wears a black witch hat, and another woman with long brown hair is smiling. The room is lit with warm red and blue lights, creating a festive atmosphere.

Get your fright on!

Arrange a spook-tacular Halloween party. This could be an office Halloween party, at home or at your local community centre. Sell tickets with all proceeds going towards your fundraising or sell tasty treats on the night.

Pumpkin carving contest

Organise a pumpkin carving competition, charge a small fee for people to enter, with proceeds going towards your fundraising.

A person in a silver astronaut suit is dancing in the center of a room. The room is decorated with colorful streamers and lights, creating a festive atmosphere. Other people are visible in the background, also dancing and enjoying the party. The astronaut suit is highly reflective and has a clear helmet. The person is holding a small object in their right hand. The background features a shelf with various items, including a lamp and some decorative objects. The floor is covered with a patterned rug. The overall scene is lively and celebratory.

Best dressed wins

Everyone loves a fancy-dress party, organise a Halloween fancy dress competition. Best outfit wins a prize!

A young man with dark hair, wearing a teal t-shirt, is leaning over a large metal tub filled with water. He is holding a red apple in his mouth, and water is dripping from it. Several other apples are floating in the tub. To his left, a young woman with brown hair tied back, wearing a grey cardigan over a black top, is smiling and watching him. The background is a bright, sunny outdoor setting with trees and a bench.

Food for the win

Arrange an apple bobbing competition

A woman with dark hair tied back, wearing a green and blue plaid dress and a gold necklace, is pouring oil from a glass bottle into a large metal wok. She is standing in a kitchen with various items on shelves in the background. In the foreground, there are some bowls and fresh green herbs.

National curry week

Whether you're heading out to your local curry house or dusting off the apron and mastering a recipe, arrange a curry night for your nearest and dearest, or get sponsored for eating a curry every day of the week.

Go out with a bang!

Host a bonfire night with your nearest and dearest. To make sure it goes off with a bang include plenty of fireworks and sparklers.

Make sure these dates are in your diary!

18
September - 03
October

Oktoberfest

October

National book month

01
October

National coffee day

16
October

World food day

31
October

Halloween

November

World vegan month

05
November

Bonfire night

14
November

Diwali

*Date subject to change yearly

A charity registered in England and Wales (209617) and Scotland (SC038979). GD0168 11/20